Research Disclosure

The research publications (the "Research Note") displayed on the goetzpartners securities Limited Research Portal are produced by goetzpartners securities Limited ("GPSL"), which is authorised and regulated in the United Kingdom by the Financial Conduct Authority ("FCA"). The goetzpartners securities Limited research analysts that prepare such are stated on the Research Notes.

goetzpartners securities Limited produces and distributes both Investment Research and Non-Independent Research.

The Non-Independent Research must be treated as a marketing communications for the purposes of Directive 2004/39/EC as these have not been prepared in accordance with legal requirements designed to promote the independence of research.

The analyst or analysts responsible for the content of the Research Notes certify that:

- the views regarding the companies and their securities expressed in this research report are accurate and are truly held. I have not received and will not receive direct or indirect compensation in exchange for expressing specific recommendations or views in this research report.

GPSL has effective organisational and administrative arrangements set up within the firm for the prevention and avoidance of conflicts of interest with respect to research recommendations, including information barriers. See the Conflicts of Interest document on this website. However, if you require any further information regarding potential conflicts of interest and the general approach taken by GPSL in relation to conflicts of interest, please contact the Compliance Department - Paul W. Dunne on: paul.dunne@goetzpartners.com

The Research Notes are for the use of the addressees only and is not intended for nor should be disseminated to Retail Customers as defined by the FCA. It may not be copied or distributed to any other person without the written consent of GPSL and may not be distributed or passed on, directly or indirectly, to any other class of persons, GPSL may in its discretion distribute this research to any other person to whom it could lawfully be distributed by an unauthorised person and without its content being approved by an authorised person.

All Research Notes have been prepared using sources believed to be reliable, however we do not represent it is accurate or complete. Neither GPSL, nor any of its partners, members, employees or any affiliated company accepts liability for any loss arising from the use of GPSL Research Notes or their contents. These are provided for informational purposes only and do not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation to buy any security or other financial instrument. While GPSL tries to update on a reasonable basis the information and opinions contained herein, there may be regulatory, compliance or other reasons that prevent us from doing so. The opinions, forecasts, assumptions, estimates, derived valuations and target price(s) contained in these publications are as of the date indicated and are subject to change at any time without prior notice.

The Research Notes do not constitute a personal recommendation and the investments referred to may not be suitable for the specific investment objectives, financial situation or individual needs of recipients and should not be relied upon in substitution for the exercise of independent judgement. Past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance and an investor may not get back the amount originally invested. The stated price of any securities mentioned herein is not a representation that any transaction can be effected at this price.

The date and time when the production of the Research Note is completed is the date and time stated on the relevant Research Note. For further detail of when any relevant Research Notes was first published, please contact the Compliance Department - Paul W. Dunne on: paul.dunne@goetzpartners.com

GPSL's methodology for assigning recommendations may include the following: market capitalisation, maturity, growth / value, volatility and expected total return over the next 12 months. The target prices are based on several methodologies, which may include, but are not restricted to, analyses of market risk, growth rate, revenue stream, discounted cash flow (DCF), EBITDA, EPS, cash flow (CF), free cash flow (FCF), EV/EBITDA, P/E, PE/growth, P/CF, P/FCF, premium (discount)/average group EV/EBITDA, premium (discount)/average group P/E, sum of the parts, net asset value, dividend returns, and return on equity (ROE) over the next 12 months.

The standard time period for both recommendations and target prices is 12 months, unless otherwise stated in the relevant Research Note.

For details of valuation methodologies, please see the relevant pages of each Research Note or previous Research Note.

The frequency of updates to Research Notes is not planned. Analysts try to remain up-to-date on stocks at all times, and generally write regular (but not frequent) Research Notes. Analysts will usually write in the event of a significant development.

It should be assumed that all Non-Independent Research Notes have been reviewed by the issuer / company for factual accuracy, and that changes will have been incorporated as a result of that review (Unless otherwise stated in the Research Note).

A list of recommendations made in the past 12 months by GPSL can be requested by contacting the Compliance Department – Paul W. Dunne on: paul.dunne@goetzpartners.com

The Research Notes are approved for communication by goetzpartners securities Limited in the UK for UK / EEA and Global market professionals / institutional investors only.
